CAMBRIDGE RINDGE AND LATIN SCHOOL

459 Broadway
Cambridge,
Massachusetts
02138

We the people that compose the class of 1989 are just like our country, diverse. Our class as representatives from nearly every country and race, and it is this diversity that helps stimulate us to become high achievers at whatever we do.

To honor this diversity, we name our yearbook 'KALEIDOSCOPE." A kaleidoscope, through a scattering of colored glass, transforms the energy of light into many beautiful, symmetrical patterns. So it is, that the energy of the staff and students at C.R.L.S. transformed the dissonance of contrasting programs, interests, cultures, and race into ever changing but consistently harmonious configurations.

The vibrancy and energy of the C.R.L.S. community is not only seen in its exceptional academic performance but is also visible in every corner of the school. Whether it is people socializing between classes in the halls, or carefully planning the senior trip in the student service center, the people of C.R.L.S. have always managed to achieve their goals, while at the same time enjoying themselves. Through a healthy interest in learning, a flair for resourcefulness, and a knack for having fun, the students and staff at C.R.L.S. have successfully reached a happy medium between work and play.

We now present to you the class of 1989, the living kaleidoscope.

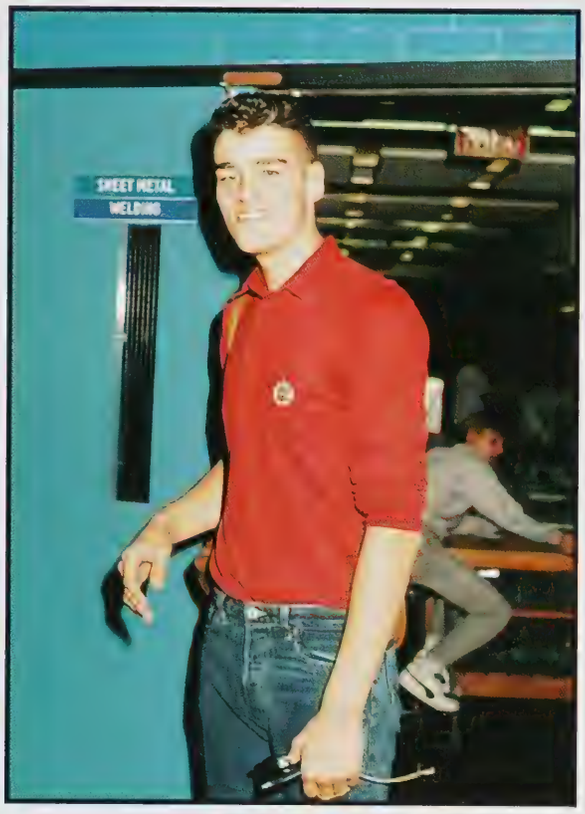
And what are you looking at?

All this for two credits?

Pardon me, do you have any Grey Poupon?

Yo!

Yeah, E does equal mc squared.



What do you mean you can't hear the music?

You mean this switch turns it off?

The three musketeers.

Say cheese!

This is the house that Jack built.

It looked better in the dark room.

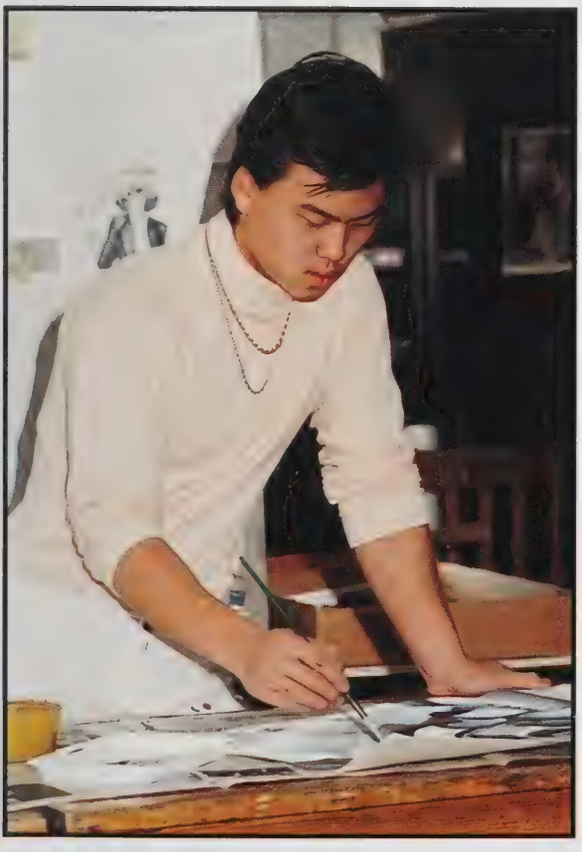
Look ma, no cavities!

I'm legal!

She'll eat it, she'll eat anything!

Something and snails and puppy dog tails.

"What do you mean lunch is over?"



"One is red, two is blue, what's three?"

Live wire!

Looking good Kathy

All this for an elevator key?

The pied piper of C.R.L.S.

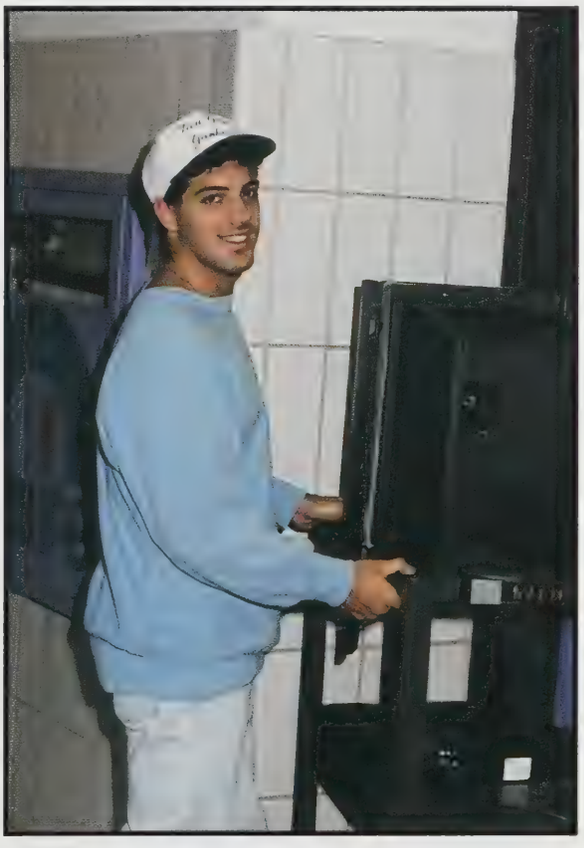
Going my way?

One more flight to go.

Peace

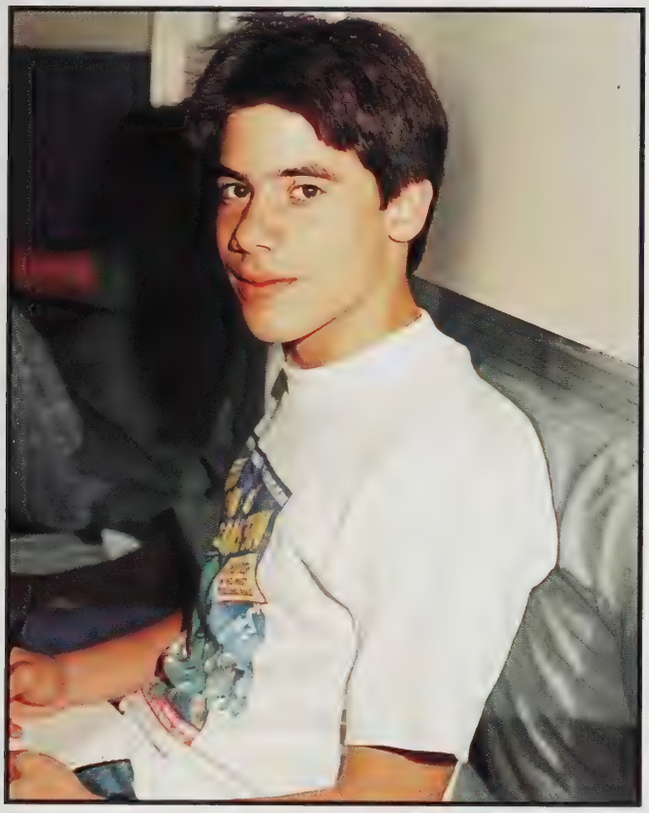
If you've got it, flaunt it.

Can't you see I'm busy



It's time for the Flintstones!

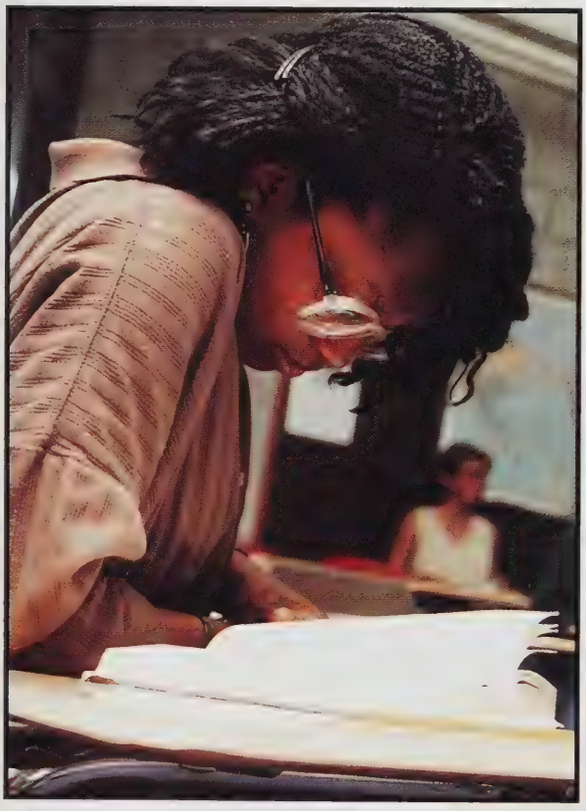
Mom, can I pleeese come home now!



Get that camera out of my face!

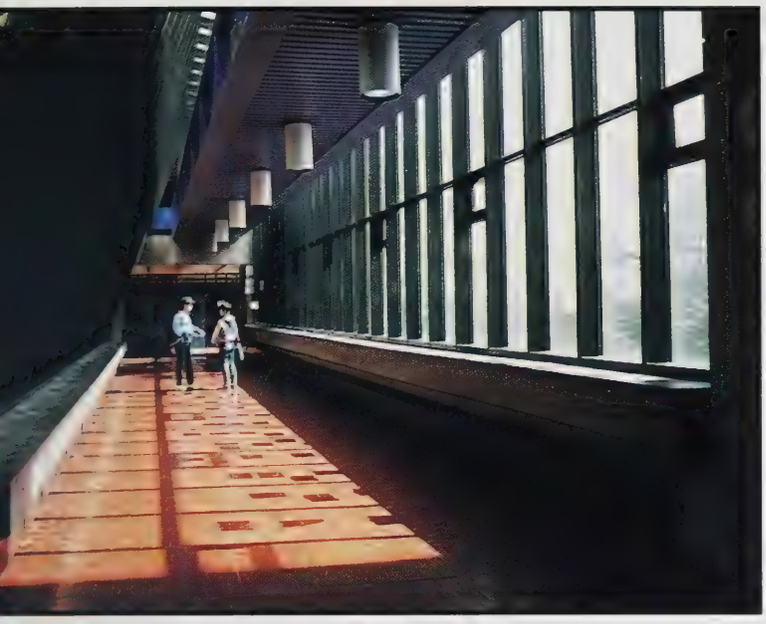
Neils ponders the meaning of life

Just chillin'



Kemi being studious

The brat pack



Yes, I have a pass

"Compu-date, can I help you?"

Don't get too excited Pei!

"Where's the party?"

This is as good as it gets.

Smooth.

I just look innocent

The meeting was today, right?

That's what

Student Life

No, I don't have two dates

The class of '89 had their Junior Semi Formal last year at the Sheraton Commander Hotel. A great deal of work went into the preparation of that event, and considering the memories we hold today of that night, it was a success. Those who attended really got into the spirit of the occasion. Some people considered it to be practice for the Senior Prom and arrived in limousines while others wore very fancy clothes.

The room where the event took place was painstakingly set up in pinks and whites, and the D.J. pumped out some fresh tunes like, 'Da Butt,' 'I Want Your Sex' and of course we can't forget, 'Two Occasions.' The night was warm and a slight drizzle sprinkled down every so often as it sometimes does in New England in the springtime. Inside it was hot and we had fun, but soon it was over and the realization of the upcoming senior year was our next event to look forward to.

SEMI FORMAL

Why yes, I'd love to dance!

Pei dancing with no hands

HI THERE!!

The Junior Class Trip
The best of trips . . . The worst of trips . . .

We met at five A.M. We all were completely unaware of what was to come in the next three days that we were to spend in Montreal, Canada. As the hours passed, we all grew more anxious to Get Off The Bus!!!! Little did we know then, that no sooner would we get off the bus than we would have to reboard again for the first of many mandatory tours of Montreal.

There were many activities planned for us such as sight seeing, shopping and dancing. We would especially like to thank our Junior Class President for the memorable evening at the Governor's mansion with fine entertainment and the unique cuisines which we all enjoyed with our fingers.

It was an experience that brought our class closer together (both squashed on the bus and in the rooms) that we will never forget.

Bahamas

Paradise Found!

This years senior class trip to Freeport Bahamas proved itself to be one of the best trips ever. With such activities as water skiing, para-sailing, jet skiing, and scuba diving, there was never a dull moment. We enjoyed hours by the pool, fun in the sun, and an endless supply of Bahama mammas! And, well, what can we say except, paradise . . . FOUND!

Cristina and Suchi soak up the sun

Ready to make a racquet

Feelin' hot, hot, hot!

Freddy's all choked up

Fun in the sun

Just act natural

Kras's catch of the day

Eat, drink and throw up

Hold still and it'll swim away

Ready . . . aim . . . fire!

Did someone say shark?

The Girlz!

Look Ma, no hands!

All smiles after the Bahamas

WANTED: Woong Soon Lee for coloring out of the lines.

WANTED: Christina Perry for first degree layout infractions.

WANTED: Kim Harring for putting the pages in upside-down.

WANTED: Remy Prevost for using too many adjectives.

WANTED: Xenia Barrett for putting the wrong name on the cover of the yearbook.

WANTED: Jaime White for running off with the captain of the team while interviewing him.

WANTED: Alyssa Krimsky for being the most stressed out one minute before the deadline.

WANTED: Gabe Daniels for his never ending referrals to NAVISTAR.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF

Al Ferreria Warden/Advisor

As the Warden/Advisor of this year's staff, I had to sentence everyone to a one year sentence of hard labor. This included many late evenings and a few weekends thrown in for good behavior. We did away with the traditional titles of position this year since most of the staff worked in several areas of production. On our most wanted list is Kim Makseyn, assisted by Suchi Mumford, for keeping our budget in the $18,000.00 range and knowing that if we were one day late with any deadline of the production the publishing company did not have to guarantee delivery before graduation. Also, on our most wanted list is Fred Centanni for recording all our financial transactions, a task none of us wanted. Four undergraduates, Gabe Daniels, Woong Soon Lee, Hsuan Tsen and Liam Toohey in the true spirit of community gave of their time and energy to help make this all possible. To all of you that made contributions both large and small — Thank you!

Al Ferreria

P.S. If I never see another slice of pizza, it will be too soon.

WANTED: Coriander Sippen for over dosing on caffeine.

WANTED: Hsuan Tsen for assisting in the processing of secret films.

WANTED: Suchi Mumford for being the most mellow the minute before the deadline.

WANTED: Fred Centanni for financial fraud.

WANTED: Ayanna Ashley for her ability to type for eight hours straight.

Kimberly Makseyn, Editor in Chief

Before working on the yearbook, I thought things like pressure, exhaustion and malnutrition were horrible things, but after working with you guys, I now know that they can actually be enjoyable. I feel privileged to have been able to work with such a wide range of students. I learned a lot from them, and we all learned a lot from each other. You are definitely the strangest bunch of people I've ever met! So . . . Jaime, Remy, Cory, Xenia and Bubby, keep typing! Gabe, Fred, Al, what can I say that you won't answer. Liam and Hsuan, I know you're working! Ayanna, Alissa and Suchi, you guys saved the day! Woong Soon, thank you! Kim and Christina, use the rulers! Shut-up Jesse! Al relax. Don't worry guys there's plenty of time!

WANTED: Jesse Stanesa for keeping the yearbook staff in stitches with his sense of humor.

SENIOR NEWS: Due to extraordinary fund raising efforts by the senior class, the price of the trip has been lowered to an all time low of 2,364.53. KEEP SELLING THOSE RAFFLE TICKETS!!

FEELING SAFE?: The School Committee recently passed a proposal for more school security guards. Starting after third period today, 10 new guards will be placed in the House B hallway. Please show them the consideration you have been showing our present security faculty.

CRC NEWS: Any student planning to further their education, and who needs financial aid may follow any one of these three steps:

1. Get off the couch and find a job
2. Get down on your hands and knees and beg your parents for money
3. Meet Lenny the Penny in the combat zone between 9-12pm.

CLUB NOTICES: The coordination club should stumble to their meeting at 2:30 this Wednesday.

The fire fighters club will be meeting today for their field trip to Yellowstone National Park.

Scholarship Information: Scholarships are available to all seniors who meet the following requirements: you must have skills in basket weaving, skateboarding, and class cutting. Your parents must make no more than 3,186.01 per year. Students must be passing all classes by the skin of their teeth. Also must be willing to commute to and from school, regardless of the weather, by mule. If eligible, seek professional help!

Yearbook staff: will be meeting every Saturday and Sunday this month from 6am through 11pm — no lunch or snacks will be provided.

Any student who is interesting in joining the sumo-mud wrestling team should report to the grass in front of the school at 2:30. All are welcome! Bring a towel.

Notice: No cigarette lighters will be allowed on the fourth floor — remember Michael Jackson!

Special Award: Today at 2:30 in the theater, a private awards ceremony will be held for the one reader of this issue. You know who you are.

Lost: A pen cap, approx. 1", blue, has personnel value. $500 reward offered. If found, please contact Eggbert McFuddyDuddy in the library.

FLASH!: All over the school student are dropping like flies. It is lead to believe that they are dying of boredom. Scientists have just begun working on a cure. In the mean time, to avoid further casualties, students will be required to wear headsets and play video games during class time.

MEDIA CAFE: For lunch today, the Media Cafe will be serving deep fried pork rinds dipped in spam, with a side of purplish jello and donkeys milk. Bon Appetit!

Update: Further developments have been made on the mysterious deaths of these students. It is said to be the result of the lack of air ventilation in the classrooms. We have concluded that breathing air brought up from the machine shop can be Fatal! Please take the proper precautions.

Warning!: The Surgeon General has determined that listening to a walkman on or near the school campus is hazardous to your mental health. In hope to repair some of the damage these walkmans have caused, we will be playing sixteenth century folk music for the rest of the year.

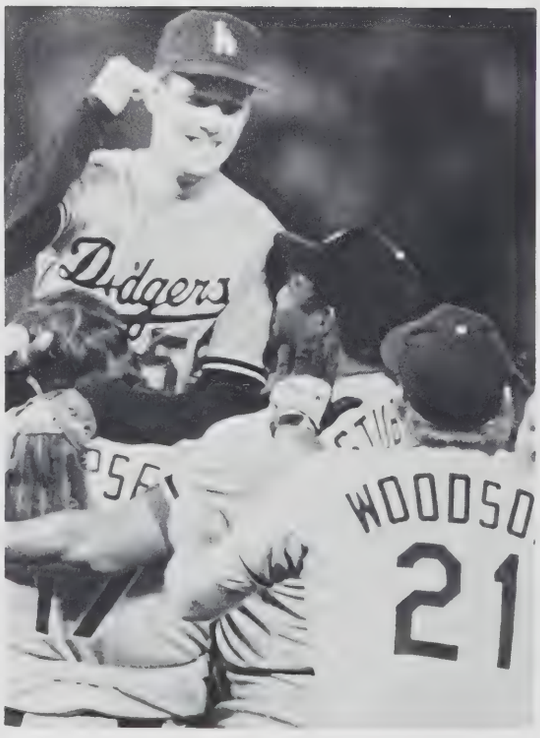
NOTICE: A construction crew will be in the school on Monday to install traffic lights on the second floor. You are expected to follow the proper regulations.

QUOTE FOR THE DAY: Be what you is, cuz if you is what you ain't, then you ain't what you is.

The Shuttle Discovery blasted into orbit in September, the first space flight since the shuttle Challenger mission ended tragically 73 seconds after liftoff on Jan. 28, 1988. The Discovery ended its successful four day, 1.6 million mile mission with a triumphant landing at Edwards Air Force Base in California.

The stars of the 1988 Summer Olympics, clockwise from top: diver Greg Louganis won 2 gold medals; track and field star Carl Lewis won 2 gold (including 1 after Canadian Ben Johnson was disqualified) and 1 silver; Florence Griffith Joyner won 3 gold and 1 silver; and swimmer Matt Biondi celebrated with 5 gold, 1 silver and 1 bronze.

World Events of 1988

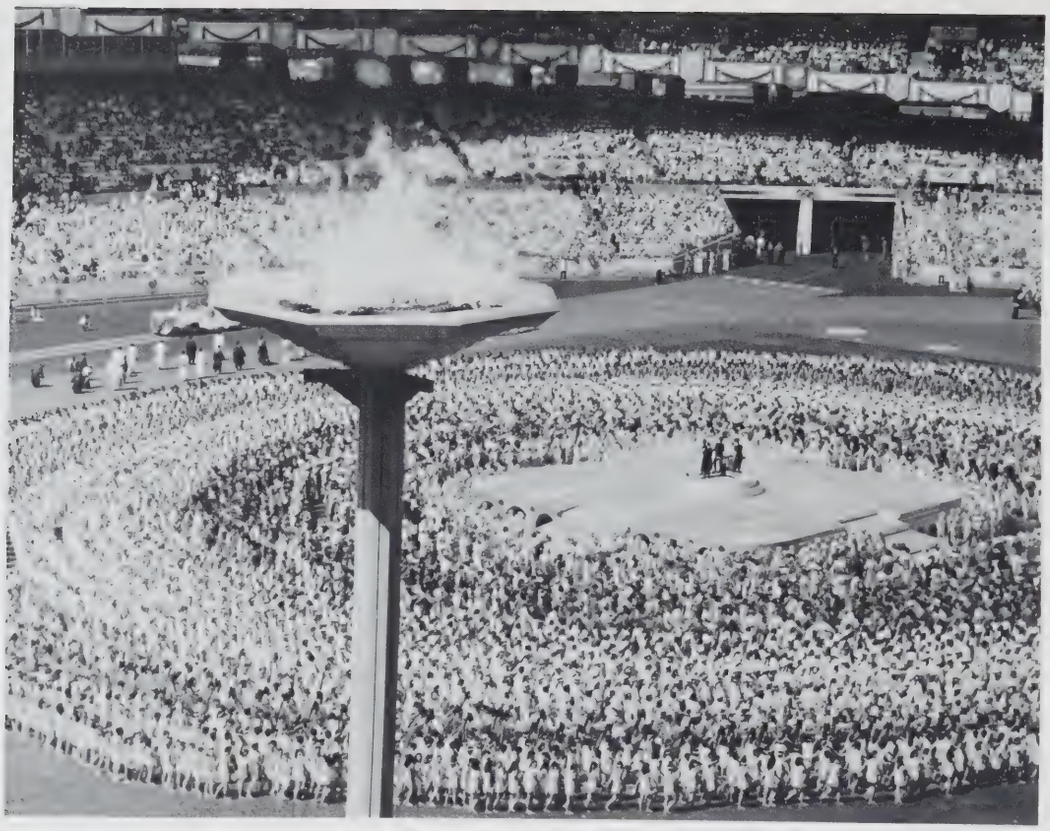


The World Series belonged to the Los Angeles Dodgers. The Dodgers captured their sixth World Series title in October with a 5-2 victory over the Oakland A's in the fifth game of the series.

Hurricane Gilbert rose out of the Caribbean like a giant wind storm in late September. By the time it lost its hurricane status over northeastern Mexico, it had killed more than 300 people, left hundreds of thousands homeless and caused billions of dollars in damage to the Caribbean, Central America, Mexico and the United States.

Vice President George Bush, after serving for eight years in the Ronald Reagan administration, got the expected nod at the Republican National Convention in New Orleans in the summer of 1988. His choice for running mate was unexpected — Sen. Dan Quayle of Indiana. the public opinion polls showed that the inexperienced 41 year-old senator was not a popular choice.

Gretchen Elizabeth Carlson erupted in tears as her name was announced as Miss America 1989. The 22 year-old Miss Minnesota who planned to be a Harvard-trained lawyer, become the first classical violinist to win the Miss American crown.



The 1989 Summer Olympics in Seoul, Korea opened with a dramatic and dazzling ceremony. A colorful, three-hour spectacle mixing ancient Korean rituals with space-age technology kicked off 16 days of athletic competition.

The Democrats went to Atlanta in the summer of 1988, and decided on Michael Dukakis, the governor of Massachusetts, to be its candidate for President of the United States. He decided to pick Lloyd Bentsen, a senator from Texas, as his running mate.

It became an international effort of good will. Russians and American rescuers cut through the ice in Alaska to save two California gray whales. The whales were trapped in the ice for more than three weeks. News media from around the world converged on the tiny village of Barrow, Alaska, to cover the successful rescue.

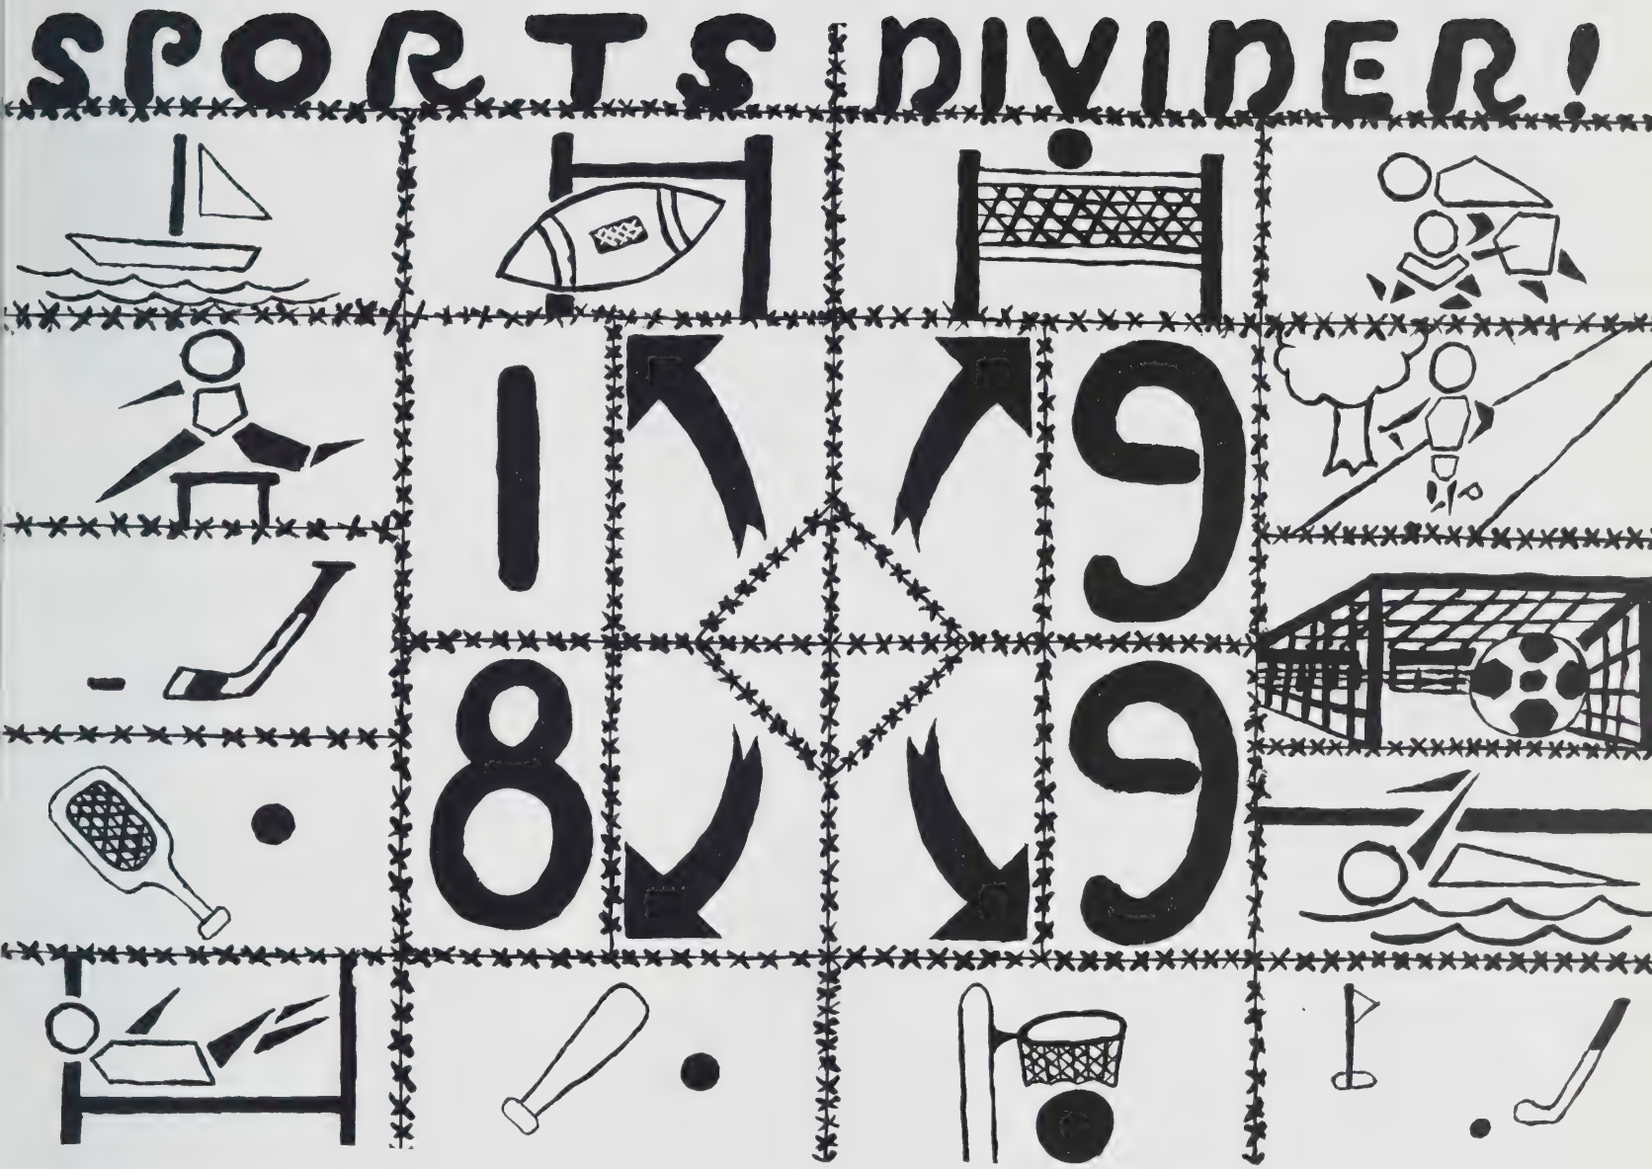
Canadian Ben Johnson, left, looks over at arch rival Carl Lewis at the finish of the 100-meter race in the 1988 Summer Olympics at Seoul, South Korea. Johnson won the gold medal but was later disqualified after traces of an anabolic steroid were found in his system.

Forest fires spread throughout the western part of the country in the summer of 1988, destroying millions of acres of national parkland. The most heavily damaged was Yellowstone National Park.

President Ronald Reagan and Soviet Leader Mikhail S. Gorbachev worked for several years to bring the two countries together. After a treaty was signed to eliminate certain nuclear weapons, 1988 was the year the efforts of there two leaders went into effect.

It was one of the big marriages of the year. Heavyweight boxer Mike Tyson married actress Robin Givens. But the stormy marriage of the 22 year-old rich boxer and the 23 year-old beautiful actress lasted less than a year. She filed for divorce. But after being accused of marrying "Iron Mike" for his money, Ms. Givens said she wouldn't take a dime.

The summer of 1988 was hit with the worst drought in many years. Throughout the midwest, farmers watched helplessly as their crops went dry.



SPORTS DIVIDER!

Girls Track: Surprise!

This year the girls track team welcomed many new members and even though they were inexperienced, the team had a successful year, including a surprise.

Michelle Earl and Maya Mauch (the Captain), were the only seniors on the team, Maya told us, "The new talent has made this year special," Probably because before the League Meet, the team was ranked in fourth place but with a little help from Deena this year, they placed second in the League. That was a surprise to everybody. Maya continued by saying that, "The spirit was good this year, but it took awhile to get the team united." And united they were, crushing the weak on their conquest to victory.

Boys Cross-Country

The boys cross-country team had yet another exciting year, finishing with five wins and only one loss. The future is very promising, since this years team will all be returning, with the exception of Monroe Hearn, the only senior.

The team had a great showing at the OLP Invitational, Brown University Invitational, Suburban League meet, to go along with a great season.

The team was lead by three juniors, who were voted to the all-suburban team: Matthew Aldrich, Erick Andleman, and Brice Lindamood.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The Girl's Basketball team did not do as well this year as it has in the past, but it did produce a strong sense of team spirit. This year's team was led by Co-Captains senior Kari Hilsman and Maria Manita. The team also consisted of senior Iliana Alvarado. Other team members included Kenetha Moore, Antoinette Smith, Stephanie Crayton, Gabrielle Hall, Christine Donofrio, Lauren Dottin, Amy Pilavstiy, Angelique Smith, and Brie McDaniels.

As quoted by Coach Audrey Cabral, "This season was a rebuilding one. Only two returning seniors and two more with any varsity experience. Good luck girls."

BOYS BASKETBALL

This has been one of the best years for the C.R.L.S. boys basketball team due to their combined talents, spirit and cooperation. Eric Rollins hopes to have one of his finest seasons yet with the team and Al Coccoluto, feels that they can do it because their greatest asset this year is the seniors. Coach said, "In my fourteen years of coaching at C.R.L.S. I haven't seen a more talented team or a team with better work effort. Since last March, these young men have been dedicated to become the best possible team they could be. I believe they have obtained that goal." The most meaningful game was the first victory over Brockton, one of their more competitive opponents. This victory was a real confidence booster which enabled them to carry a successful season. When this was published, their record was 15-1, and that in itself deserves a standing ovation. Way to go team!!

Boys Volleyball

Still a new sport at C.R.L.S., the boys volleyball team is making a name for itself. For the second year in a row the team finished in second place, in the Suburban League.

The team was lead by our departing seniors: Maceo Bishop, Anthony "Dish" Borelli, and Roy Howard. Although they will be missed, the team will have a strong future, with some returning sophomores and juniors.

Linda Town had nothing but praise for the team, saying "This is a great sport to coach, since it's a team effort, and this group of kids are a team."

GOLF

Although not one of the more known teams at C.R.L.S., the golf team had another solid year. Spirits were high although spectators are not allowed on the course. The team considers this one of the building years for the sport, and hopes to get some new golfers in the future.

The team was lead by seniors Carim N. Haroz and Mark Madden. ''The team did not have a great year, but the kids pulled together, and that's what really counts.'', remarked coach Joe Pag. Good luck in the future.

HOCKEY

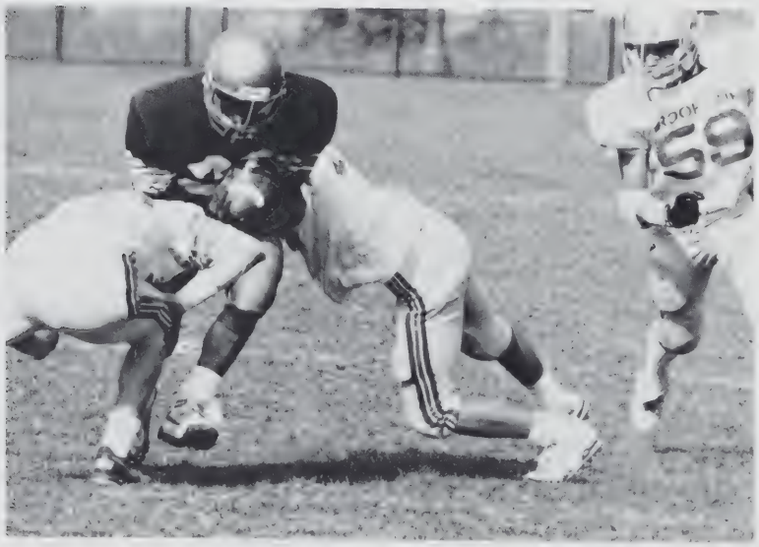
Our hockey team started out with their skates on the wrong feet this year, but regained their strength as the season progressed. This year's captain, John Roderick, feels that next year will be a better season for the team. Other seniors on the varsity team include Carim Haroz and Massimo Zannella. So, we say with pride that, despite the odds, our warriors did their best!

FOOTBALL

The football team began their season with high spirits and hopes for a successful season. Led by coach Wadie Geraigery the team was ready to turn the Cambridge football program around.

The most important elements of the team were spirit and devotion. Captains Ray Neves, Tony Wizzard Shawn Yard, and Matt Hagman all played major roles in keeping the team motivated through a very difficult schedule.

Although the team was not victorious on the field, the real victory was within the team itself shown through the spirit and pride of the team.



CHEERLEADING

The cheerleading Squad of C.R.L.S. Football and Basketball teams consist of nine cheerleaders that try to do their best in making C.R.L.S. "exciting." Like all other teams they have their ups and downs, but they work them out together.

This year's squad is led by Senior Captain Leger Walcott. Other members of the squad are Seniors Dhonyale Jones, Deborah Greenidge, Darcelle Lowe, Doreen Sorenson, Tasha Zamor and Juniors Robin Marshell, Luis McCrae and Vanessa House.

According to Dhonayle Jones she feels this year's squad made things change. This change became known when Luis McCrae became a cheerleader. Dhonayle feels this was not for the worst, "Luis made people realize that you can do anything you want and enjoy it." The Cheerleaders really saw things in a respectable way and saw that he could make things very enjoyable and he did.

What the Cheerleaders would like to say is that, "We are happy to have him." To speak in general they feel cheerleading at C.R.L.S. was real!

Girls Softball

The girls softball team has been through some changes over the past year. Since many talented seniors graduated, the team is in a rebuilding phase. The coach Mr. Priest has been trying to compensate by encouraging underclassman to become involved. The future looks bright as the many of these new players are very skilled. The hope is to bring the girl's softball team to the level of excellence we have known for so long. Good luck in future seasons.

BOYS BASEBALL

A NEW START

The boys baseball team has undergone some changes lately, but the changes are hopefully going to be an asset to the team for a successful year.

Last year was a 'rebuilding' year as quoted by the captain Scott McGaffigan. He continued by saying that last year they " . . . had young people with no experience."

With determination and a strong eager group, the CRLS boys baseball team has high hopes to go far.

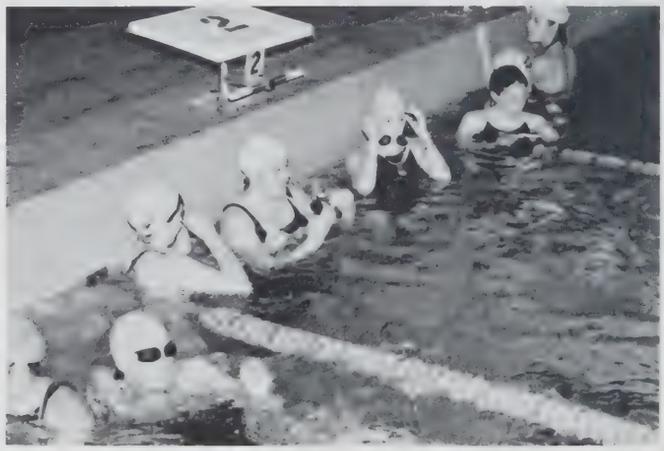
Girls Swimming

The Girls swim team had another positive season this year and is making a name for itself in the suburban league. Their record of 4 wins and 4 losses is a sharp improvement over last years mark of 2 and 5. Their season was highlighted by impressive victories over Somerville and Quincy. "In terms of spirit, ability and dedication, this year's team was the best I've seen. All season long we worked together supporting each other's efforts. Consequently, each girl achieved at least one of her personal goals," said captain Aimée Hendrigan. Despite losing several seniors, the team has a very bright future especially with the help of the new coach, Sandy Peco.



BOYS SWIMMING

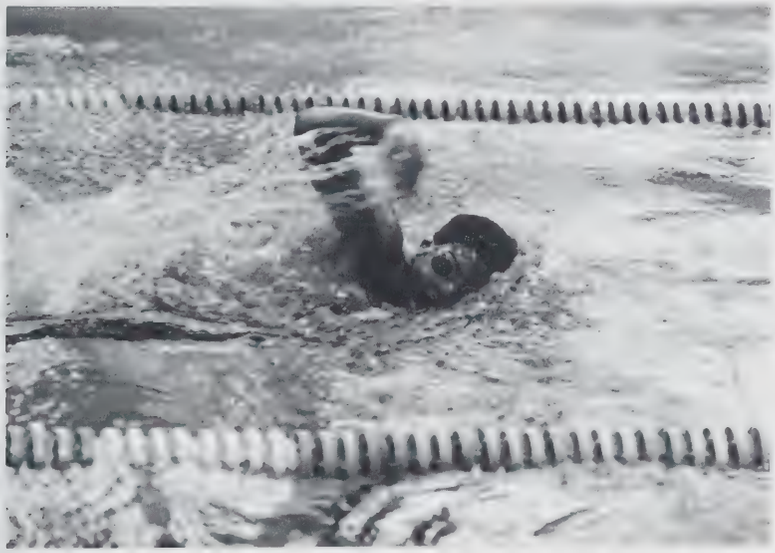
The boys swim team had an unusual year. Although the team has outstanding young talent it managed a record of only 4 wins and 5 losses and a fourth place finish in the Suburban league.

The team was led by senior captains Jeremy Cantor and Monroe Hearn. The excitement was given to the team by junior, Khari Milner, who broke six school records. With many talented underclassmen returning, next year's season is sure to be a winning one.



Girls Soccer

The 1988 Girls Soccer teams followed up 87's success with another winning season. Led by Suburban League All Star seniors: Jessica Ferraro, Captain Kari Hilsman, T.C. Cable and Captain Anabelle Winne, the team rolled to a 9-8-1 season and nearly reached the state tournament. The junior varsity team also had a fine season. Led by sophomore Sara Coleman and Maya Goldberg and Emily Rosenberg, the J.V. demonstrated marked improvement throughout the season. Coaches John Daley and Filo Moreira combined to motivate the teams with inspirational words, instruction and humor.

JR. VARSITY

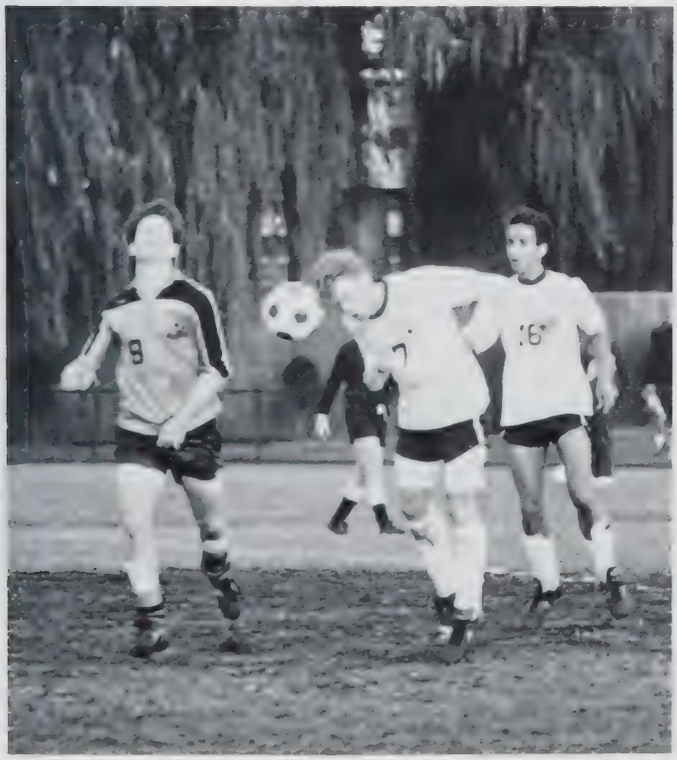
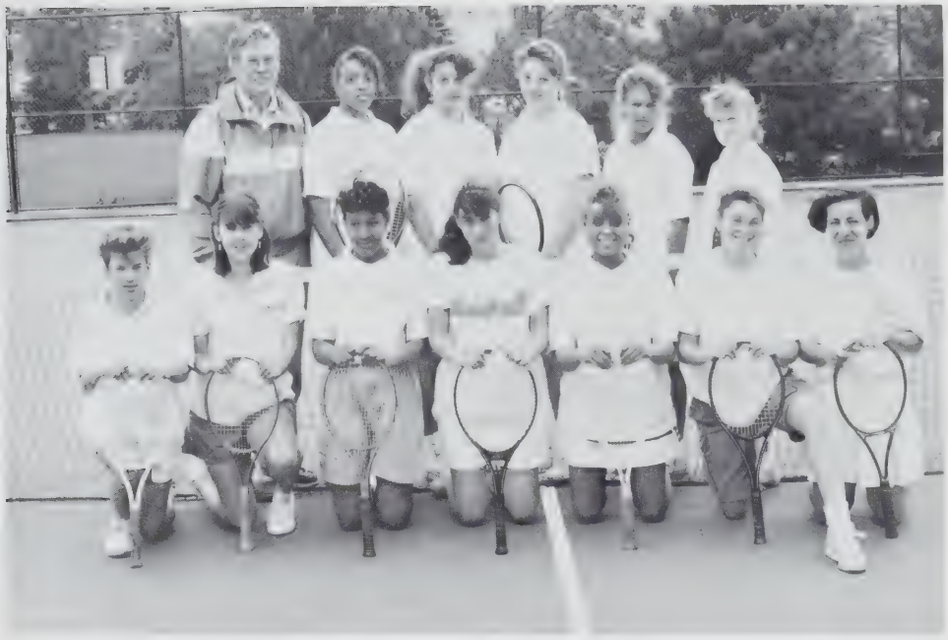
Over the years the Boy's Soccer team has been one of the most successful teams in the school. They finished the season with a record of 7 wins, 5 losses and 4 ties, highlighted by exceptional outings against Waltham and Brockton. The team has a solid foundation with the experience of senior captains; Brendan Case, Felix Massillon and Paul Kaynor. "We didn't all know each other in the beginning of the year, but we were able to come together during the season and play like a team," said Brendan Case. The future looks bright for Cambridge soccer because of the great coaching by Mr. Inglis and the outstanding young talent in the school.



GIRLS TENNIS



The girls tennis team at Rindge and Latin has always been composed of a wide range of players and this year was no exception. Kari Hilsman, Suchitra Mumford, Jamie Duberstein, Christina Mcfadden and Susie Hicky were the varsity players this year. Their abilities ranged from 'old pro' to 'new pro' and although no mind shattering victories occurred, the team basked in the knowledge that they were slowly but surely establishing a name for themselves in the league. The backbone of the teams unity is the confidence and pride that Coach Jack Noble carries for them and hopefully the team will remain so after the Varsity team graduates.

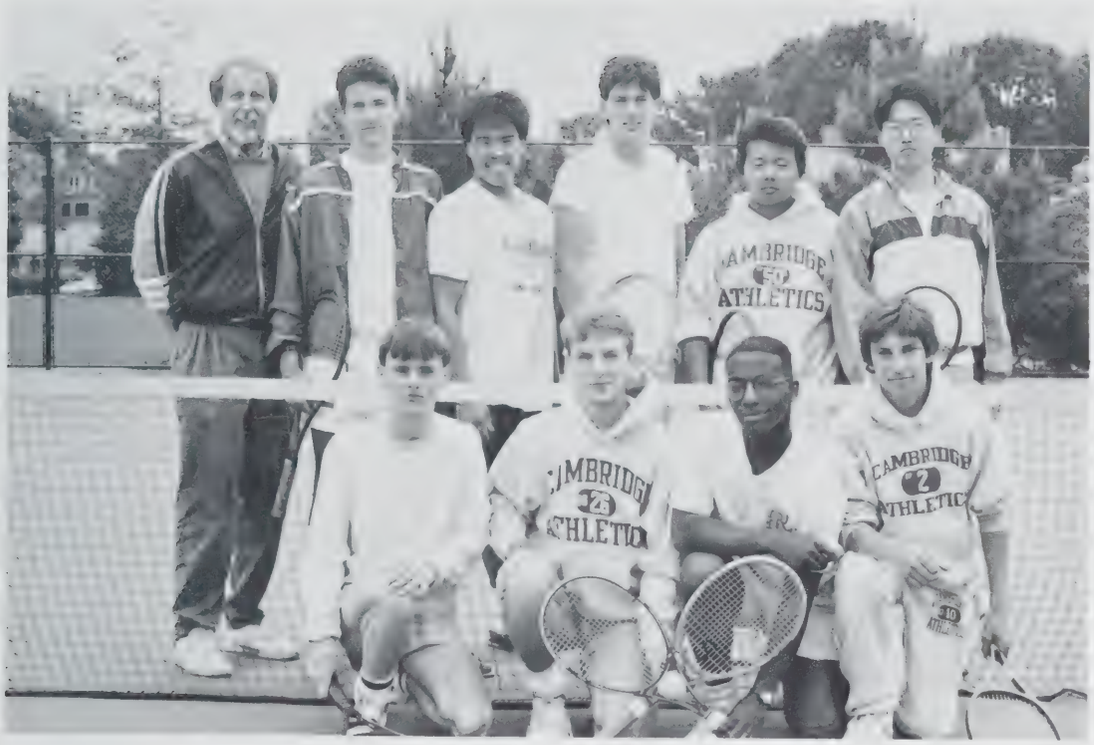
BOYS TENNIS



The boys tennis team had its most successful year ever, making it to the State Tournament! "The team worked really hard and deserved to get to where they did," remarked Coach Gay. The team was lead by seniors Jason Vickery and Tange Larson, along with strong performances from the younger members of the team. The future looks bright for the team in the upcoming years with returning varsity players.

Good luck!

BOYS INDOOR TRACK

The C.R.L.S indoor track team had yet another successful season, winning another state title. The team had a promising performance at the Boston College Relays, where the mile relay team won with ease. At the Dartmouth Relays seniors, Rollin Herold, Gabe Artis, and Ray Neves showed the power of C.R.L.S. by advancing high into the semifinals.

''As a captain I could not see myself anywhere else. It does not matter if we win or lose; the mile relay is what really counts.'' (Captain Ray Neves)

GIRLS INDOOR TRACK

Everyone predicts a strong finish for the C.R.L.S. girls' track team at the State and League meets this year. Under the coaching of Mr. Sousa and Ms. Banks, the team had a very successful season with a 4-1 record before their last dual. Despite losing their senior tri-captains Maya Mauch, Michelle Earle and Sarah Cooper the team has a bright future with lots of young, upcoming talent. Look out for Cambridge next year!

BOYS WRESTLING

1989 season has been great for the Cambridge Rindge and Latin wrestling team. With many of lat year's members returning the team has gone further than any wrestling team from Cambridge in recent history. Captains Shawn Yard and Joseph Russell have demonstrated outstanding leadership qualities to a relatively young team. Coach Audet and assistant coach Crowley have played major roles in creating a spirited and devoted team which is apparent by the team's performances.

THE ARTS

DRAMA DEPARTMENT

Although the Drama Department has undergone some changes in the last year, the departure of some very well known actors and actresses in the school has not affected the department as much as expected.

The fall production, 'Alice In Wonderland' was a great success and was in some ways a reassurance that many fine drama students were still in the school. Some students that proved this belief to be true were, Matt Holland, who was one of three stage managers of the show.Also Ayanna Ashley, and Rich Giannino who were prominate senior figures in producing the technical aspect of the show. The fine quality of work that is expected by fans of the C.R.L.S. drama department, has lived up to it's standards this year.

Dance Department

Dance is an important branch of the creative arts at C.R.L.S. For the past nine years the drama department has produced an annual dance concert. The concert consists of dance pieces ranging in style from Jazz to Modern to classical ballet. Under the direction of dance instructor Barbara Ehrlich, students in the advanced dance classes work throughout the year to develop an original concert of their own choreography. The wide variety of dancing styles and pieces serves as an outlet to express the students thematic concerns and reflects the creativity of the students at C.R.L.S.

The Music Department

The Music Department provides an opportunity for all students to receive a comprehensive music education. The performances and community service which contribute to developing a sense of responsibility in students are an integral part of the music activities. There is a myriad of courses consisting of choral, instrumental, and piano & theory offered within the program.

Throughout the course of the year, members have been involved in various concerts and performances, some of which include the winter and spring concerts, Kwaanza, and the Martin Luther King assembly. The jazz ensemble, gospel choir, the band, and the orchestra have been involved in these assemblies. With the help of the Music Department, this past summer, the Jazz Ensemble was fortunate enough to be invited to the Soviet Union to display their extraordinary talents.

The Philosophy of the Music Department

It would be easy and require far less effort to perform many of the major classical works with a few selected students. However, we feel that it is far more important and of much greater educational value to allow and encourage as many students as possible to perform major works. Many schools select their most talented students for performances of this caliber, thus providing the quality experience for a few students but very little for the majority. With large numbers of students, quality of performance may not (or may) achieve the professional level we all desire, but we are talking about public school students — not professional performers. Our highest priority is the educational growth of all students with the concomitant development of their discriminative ability thus elevating their level of taste and appreciation through musical enrichment. The law of diminishing returns is quickly effected when educators place too much emphasis upon obtaining professional performance from only a few talented students. This type of training must and should rightfully take place in specialized institutions of higher learning where it is economically feasible.

We are proud of the performances presented by our students and staff. We believe that our philosophy of music education is most effective in nurturing intelligent customers, producers, and/or creators of music.

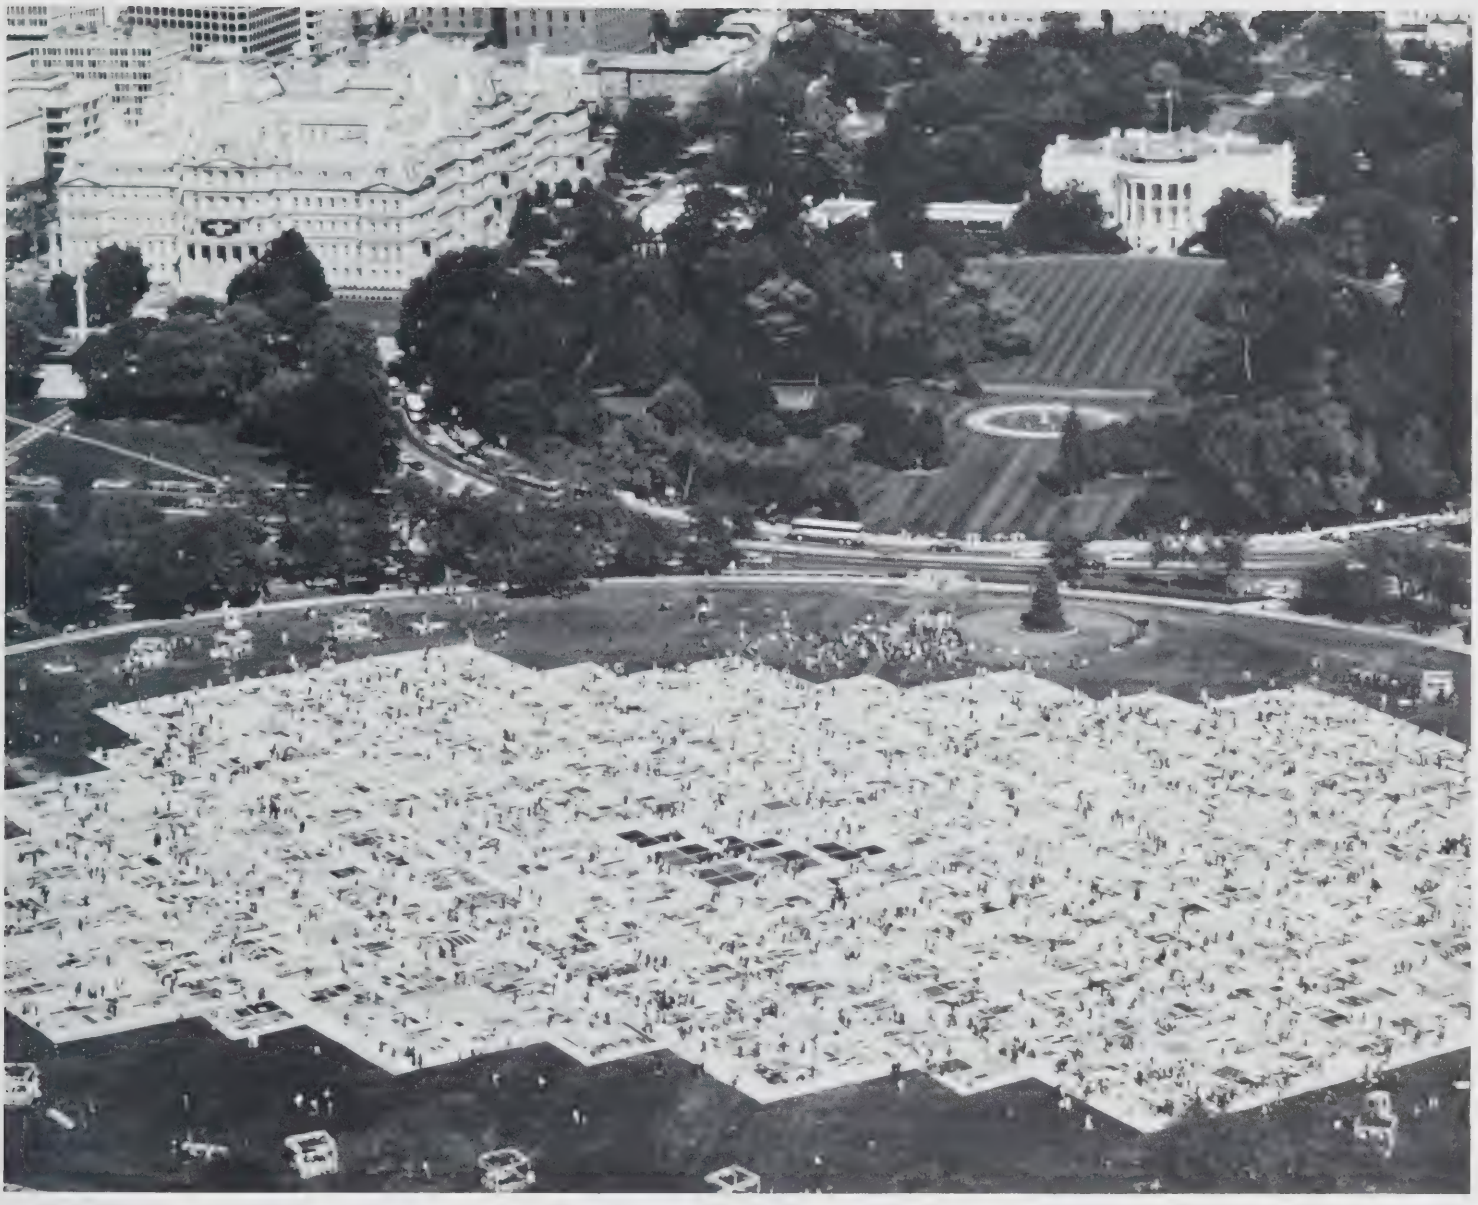
Yearbook Theme

In choosing our theme for the class of 1989's yearbook, the yearbook staff wanted a message that truly represented the exceptional qualities of our school. Cambridge Rindge and Latin is a school of great diversity, consisting of students from 60 different countries. Traditionally, clubs, sports, and other organizations within the school have been a place for students of all nationalities to interact and get to know each other. Therefore, these clubs are symbolized by a thread of a quilt intertwining throughout our school. For this reason, we choose the patchwork quilt as the yearbook theme.

The patchwork quilt consists of multi-colored squares representing all the people in our school. It signifies their different backgrounds, cultures, nationalities and personalities that make Cambridge Rindge and Latin a unique school.



Amid tears and grief, thousands of people who had died of AIDS were memorialized in October in ceremonies centered on a huge quilt that as made from friends and family members of the victims. Each of the panels measured three feet by six feet and all 50 states and a dozen foreign countries were represented in the 375,000 square foot quilt.

The Jesse Jackson Speech

The Patchwork Quilt Speech, made by Reverend Jesse Jackson, was unique and inspirational. The quilt symbolized diversity and unity of all people in the world. The speech which was made at the Democratic National Convention clearly portrayed minority interests present among the American people, as well as throughout the world. Another main point from the speech was that if people work together in one entity they can achieve any goal. His speech exemplified this theme which we are creating for our 1989 yearbook.

C.R.L.S. CLUBS

Cambridge Rindge and Latin, traditionally, has great participation from its students in its clubs. The diversity and unity within the clubs has given students the opportunity to work together and to learn from people of different ethnic backgrounds.

Please consider that because of the large quantity of students enrolling in our clubs, not everyone had the chance to attend the picture taking session.

The CRLS Wilderness Club has a long tradition at our school. Having started out small, it is now over seventy-five members strong. Our activities have also grown significantly to include rock climbing, canoeing, backpacking, leadership training, hiking, cross-country skiing, winter camping, survival skills, first aid, and polar diving. Though we love Cambridge, there is something special about getting out there in the countryside and challenging ourselves. We'd like to share some of our experiences with you through these photos. Bill Colom, John Samp, and Mike Krasnow thank those who took part in our many cooperative efforts. Kraz wishes you well in the future and extends an open invitation to camp out with him in Vermont.

Alpine Ski Club

Dennis and his protege get ready to attack the moguls.

We are the finest skiers you've ever gonna meet.

This year the C.R.L.S. Alpine Ski Club put on a new face. John Daley and George Greenidge ran the club while Kras helped out in the background. The transition was extremely smooth due to the hard work of many students and chaperones. Over 1,000 students from every racial, ethnic, and socio-economic segment of our high school have melded again this year to have fun on the slopes while getting to know more about each other. A special thanks to Y.E.S. and Kras, we'll miss you in your retirement. Have fun in Vermont knowing we will keep the Ski Club booming.

Blood Drive

The annual blood drive at C.R.L.S. demonstrates a special effort of community and consciousness by students and faculty alike. With special help from Mr. McGillicudy many people came out this year to participate in the drive's organization and to donate blood which helped many people in need.

SUPERINTENDENT MCGRATH

Mary Lou McGrath is the first woman superintendent of the Cambridge school system. Mrs. McGrath, a native of Cambridge, taught at the Peabody school. In 1978 she was named director of elementary education in Cambridge, and assistant superintendent later that year.

Mrs. McGrath earned her undergraduate degree at Salem State College and later furthered her education at Boston College and Westchester State College before beginning her teaching career in Burlington. She is also chairwoman of the Catholic Archdiocese School Committee Board of Education.

Women in roles of leadership are important to all high school students. Our staff thought about the following quote captures the underestimated capabilities of women in our society.

As quoted from Ann Richards, keynote speaker of the Democratic National Convention, "But if you give us a chance, we (women) can perform. After all, Ginger Rogers did everything Fred Astaire did, she just did it backwards and in high heels."

TEEN HEALTH

CENTER

Teen Health Center

On September 22, 1988 the new Teen Health Center opened its doors with a celebration. Many people gathered for this event, including students, staff, parents and members of the community. This new center is a place where students can come with problems related to health, drugs, or sex.

The original health center was moved from the fourth floor to the first floor. This shift was made to enlarge the office and to accommodate all of the students in one area. Even though some of the staff members are new, they are all working together to make the Teen Health Center the best it can be. "Things have been coming along great so far and we all hope it continues," said Sandy Moore, who has been working in the school's health office for years. Marie Louis also added, "We are all qualified people who got the chance to make a difference, and intend to."

It is believed that this center will be beneficial to the students of the school.

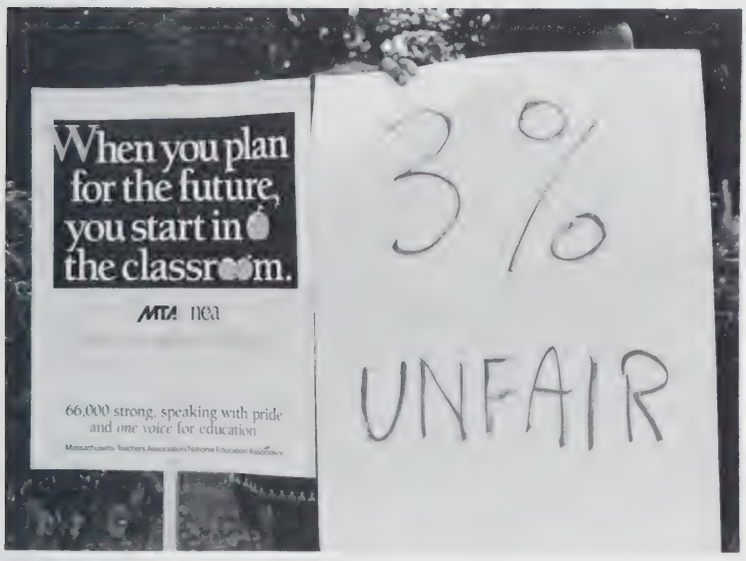
Teacher Strike
Potential Strike
Senior Panic

Every time the teachers' contracts are negotiated there is some tension around settlements. This fall's negotiations brought about the greatest fear in many years of an actual teachers' strike and sent a wave of panic and tension throughout the school especially among the seniors. The option of a work to rule order or an all out strike meant no recommendations, extra curricular activities, or any form of extra help, which would greatly disrupt student life at C.R.L.S. For the class of 1989, either option jeopardized all aspects of what makes up a complete senior year.

One positive result was students and teachers uniting to fight for a common cause. In the end an agreement was reached to everybody's relief.



When you plan for the future, you start in the classroom.

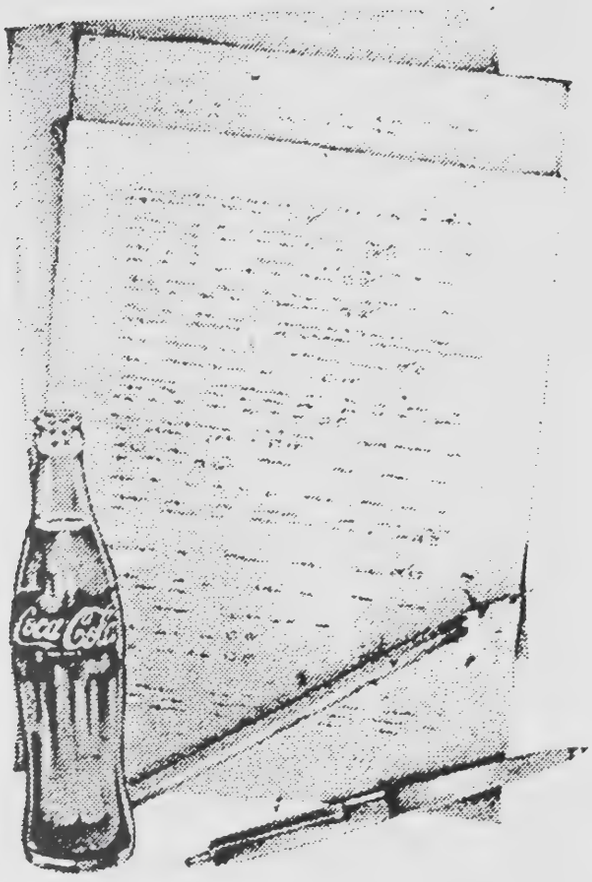
UNFAIR



A current issue which has united the students at Cambridge Rindge and Latin is the role that we as members of a strong student body can play in the fight against Apartheid. The groups that have been involved in promoting the movement are Cambridge Youth for Peace, the Black Student Union, the Haitian Club, and the Senior Class. They have worked together to educate their peers about the present situation in South Africa.

The Apartheid Regime now controlling the country of South Africa, is a system under which the white ruling class has oppressed the black majority. In this system, the fifteen percent white minority controls over eighty percent of the wealth and resources of the country. Black citizens cannot travel from one geographic area to another without a special pass and can be detained in prison for long periods of time without notification of the charges. In that time, the prisoner may be subjected to torture, starvation, or worse. The government also spends ten times more money for a white student's education than for a black student's education.

In terms of democracy, only the whites participate in the decision making processes of the Government, although two token legislative seats are given to other racial groups. The reality is that the power lies in the hands of the fifteen percent minority. It is important to keep in mind, however, that the whites are not the evils in the society, but the actual system of government itself. Many whites have joined the black movement of liberation and have made a positive contribution towards ending Apartheid.

Divestment, in its purest form, means total severance of all economic ties with South Africa. The divestment in the United States has generally looked towards large corporations as their targets. Although Coca-Cola has divested and is not directly paying taxes to the present government there is still a question as to how involved the company is.

The problem that Cambridge Rindge and Latin is now faced with is whether or not the school as a whole should boycott the selling of Coca-Cola which is now available on the premises. The groups involved worked to organize a debate presenting both sides of the problem to help the students make an informed choice. One of the positive aspects of this sensitive issue was that we recognized the tremendous vitality that exists in our student body.

At the time that this yearbook went to press, a final decision about the Coca-Cola controversy had not yet been reached by the members of the C.R.L.S. community.

TURKEY DAY RALLY

This year's rally was successful in bringing out the school spirit that has always been present in past years. Senior class president Malcolm Mitchel, football captain Ramon Neves and coach Geraigery helped to lead the rally. All the fall teams displayed their pride at this annual exhibition. Although some seniors felt that enthusiasm during the pep rally had slightly declined in recent years, it is evident that spirit is still alive in C.R.L.S.!

Joe Simeone

Joe Simeone passed away last April, just as he had lived — at work. It seemed as if Joe was always working: on the job, at his church, or for someone in need.

For many years, Simeones's Restaurant in Central Square was a gathering place for the whole Boston area. He often contributed his time and skills to worthy causes.

Joe was kind and generous to his workers, his customers, and later, to his students and fellow teachers who will all miss him.

A DIFFERENT LOOK OF LIFE AT C.R.L.S.

There's something in one's life that can mean alot to him, and for me that thing is being a tutor in the C.R.L.S. Writing Center. C.R.L.S. Writing Center? What's that? Well for those of you out there who haven't heard about it, the C.R.L.S. Writing Center is a wonderful place to write your papers and essays and get help with them. Inside the big, bright room the key clicking sounds of computers are heard all day long. But the most important thing in the Writing Center is the tutors. They are always there and willing, ready to help you out on any problems concerning your paper.

Being one of the tutors in the Writing Center, I feel proud. Tutoring is fun and the feeling of usefulness is great. But the feeling of self confidence in my English abilities is the most important thing to me. Every session of tutoring in the past has given me more and more self confidence.

Once I had to go to a workshop in Harvard University to tutor some freshmen from our high school. On the night before that, I was twisting and turning, couldn't sleep. I was thinking, "God, why did I ever take this job of tutoring? Those students are only freshmen, but they're all Americans. And I, a foreign student who has only been in this country for three years, am going to tutor them. Who am I kidding?"

Next day at the workshop, after the students wrote their papers, it was time for group responses. The students were divided into groups of three, each with one tutor. The thought of being humiliated infront of the freshmen and the fellow tutors came through my mind thousands of times. With my heart pounding at the speed of light, I sat down in the group. I don't have much confidence in myself. Just before the first student started to read his paper, I thought to myself, "Be calm. It's all right, I'm just tutoring some freshmen. Although I have only been in this country for three years, I'm taking the Advanced Writing Seminar course now. I can at least teach these freshmen, can't I?" So I readied myself, and took out my notebook and a pen. As the first student was reading, I concentrated on listening to his paper carefully and quickly wrote down some well said points. After He finished reading it, I started to give him feedback based on the things I wrote down. I analyzed his paper with him, explaining to him what were the strong points he had, and what were the weak parts that he had to cut out or improve on. I told him that writing a paper is just like composing a good piece of music. Don't put garbage in it to just make the paper look longer, but instead present your ideas clearly so the audience will know what you are talking about. Then that will be a piece worth cheering about. Surprised by what I had just said and seeing the student taking the suggestions and revising his paper, I could just feel my confidence growing. Later on, with the suggestions I gave to the freshmen, they all improved their papers much better, and I had certainly enjoyed every moment of tutoring that day.

Since that workshop, I have been doing great on helping students revising their papers in the Writing Center. Three years ago, I was just beginning to study English, and now I have become a Writing tutor. Tutoring is one of the best experiences I have had in C.R.L.S., because it has given me the self confidence of my English ability I need to conquer and explore my future.

STOP THE VIOLENCE

It is a sad statement of society when this scene of pointless death is so familiar to each and everyone of us. What we need to understand is that violence is not something that we are thrown into. It is something that we and we alone propagate and it is something that we and we alone perpetuate. In essence we control it.

What does this mean? It means that we alone can determine what we can and will live with. It means that we can choose not to live with guns and knives in our society. It means that we can choose to live in the security that we are safe in our neighborhoods. It means that we can choose not to live with the apprehension of violence and expect tranquility.

We young people make up a minority of the population, yet when it comes to violence we make up the majority; the majority of the victims and the majority of the perpetuators. What you need to understand is what you are doing is staring down the barrel of a loaded gun and your fingers are on the trigger. Each time you fight, you squeeze that trigger a little more. And someday, someday soon that gun's going to go off and death will be your only answer.

We would rather fight ourselves than our enemies: Ignorance, prejudice, and hatred.

We have become beasts to violence. We crave it with a hunger of unimaginable magnitude. Our call to glory is someone screaming the word "FIGHT". God gave us the ability to think. Brothers and sisters let us use this ability to further ourselves and our peoples. We can make a stand before further deaths.

PLEASE, STOP THE VIOLENCE

UTAHHH! . . . 89'

This year, students from Cambridge Rindge and Latin embarked on their third annual trip to Salt Lake City UTAH. Led by our fearless coordinators Mr. G. Kras, and John Daily, we spent the best week of our lives snowplowing, paralleling and faceplanting. It was an experience we'll never forget, and we'll look forward anxiously to next years trip. Remember: It's not the chowda, it's the powda!

IN MEMORIAM

Warren G. Ferzoco of Westwood, assistant headmaster of Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School, died January 20, 1989 at New England Medical Center in Boston after a long illness. He was 56.

Born in Boston, he lived in Readville before moving to Westwood more than 20 years ago. He graduated from Northeastern University with a degree in engineering, and received a master's degree in education from Boston State College in 1966. Mr. Ferzoco was the assistant headmaster of Cambridge Rindge and Latin High School for more than 20 years.

Mr. Ferzoco was respected for his steady and consistent work with the principals at both the Rindge and Latin Schools. The staff appreciated his support and his sense of collegiality.

The students benefited from his expert knowledge base and the personal interest that he brought to their development as young people. We will miss Warren as a school community and we are diminished by his loss.

Due to publishing datelines, we regret this memoriam could not be included in the faculty section.
